Instructions to Reviewers:

1. All individuals reviewing this application are required under 35 USC 181 to sign and date this form regardless of whether they are making a secrecy order recommendation.
2. The attached copy of the application, any copies made therefrom and this form must be returned to the PTO once a recommendation not to impose secrecy has been made or a secrecy order has been rescinded.

Time for Completion of Review:

Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 184, the subject matter of this application may be filed in a foreign country for the purpose of filing a patent application without a license any time after the expiration of 6 months from filing date unless the application becomes the subject of a secrecy order.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) is a federal agency within the Department of Commerce. It is responsible for the administration of the United States patent and trademark laws. The USPTO is a quasi-judicial agency, meaning that it has the authority to make decisions that have the force of law. The USPTO is also a part of the Executive Branch of the Federal Government. The USPTO is responsible for the examination and prosecution of patent applications, the registration of trademarks, and the enforcement of intellectual property rights. The USPTO is also responsible for the administration of the United States Patent and Trademark Office's budget and the management of its personnel. The USPTO is a critical part of the United States' intellectual property system, and its decisions can have a significant impact on the lives of inventors and businesses.
